

Dear 4-H Family:

I hope you're all enjoying the sun this week! Spring will be here before we know it, which means that it is time to complete your 2024 4-H enrollment in 4HOnline! I have attached a step-by-step guide for returning 4-H families to help you with re-enrollment. Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions, or if you need your password reset.

The 2024 Forestry Wildlife Camp is scheduled for April 19-21, and spots will fill up before you know it! This opportunity is open to youth in grades 7-11 and 4-H members in the 12th grade are encouraged to apply as camp counselors. Campers will enjoy wildlife education, fishing, hiking, and tree climbing, and learn about forestry, outdoor survival, and ODNR careers and college opportunities! Registration is due March 28. Youth can also apply for camp scholarships by March 1 for the opportunity to attend at a reduced rate.

There are two upcoming opportunities for members planning to take a clothing or textile project this year! The first is an Athens County 4-H Sewing Clinic scheduled for March 23rd with two different sessions – attend one or both! Please check out all the details and registration information on the attached flyer (attachment is a link at the bottom of this email). Space is limited and registration will close on March 11th.

Sew Ohio is a sewing conference for 4-H'ers to improve their clothing and textile skills. It will be held at the Ohio 4-H Center on April 27, 2024. There will be beginner, intermediate, and advanced level sessions so there will truly be something for everyone! Please check out the flyer and registration form at the following link – registrations and the $10 registration fee need to be submitted to the Extension Office by March 27th to give us enough time to register you online.
